A meeting of the Seekers' Literary club was held Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Seaton. As each member's name was called site responded with a short talk on Utah, as this was Utah day. Mrs. Deacon gave a talk on artists, Mrs. Blackmarr, on writers; Mrs. King, on sculptors, and the programme was concluded by a talk on "What the State is Doing for Women and Children," by Mrs. Beless. The programme throughout was most interesting and was much enjoyed by all.

The Saft Lake club women are still busy with their untiring efforts to arouse a more practical interest in the sane Fourth movement, and it is hoped that Salt Lake will join hands with them to make it a success next year. Of course it can not be expected that it will be a decided success this year, as the ordinance does not go into effect until July 5, but many suggestions have as the ordinance does not go into elect until July 5, but many suggestions have been made with regard to having an official manner of celebrating, instead of the semi-barbarous way it has been

The Wasatch Literary club met at the home of Mrs. Earl Dunshee on Tues-day afternoon. The program consisted of an afternoon with the "wits." Mrs.

of an afternoon. The program consisted of an afternoon with the "wits." Mrs. Lanning gave an interesting sketch of the life of Walt Mason, the "poetic philosopher." A reading by Mrs. Deason from the pen of Marietta Holly, (Josiah Allen's wife), together with a bit of her life was most enjoyable. Mrs. Hawxhurst contributed an article on Mark Twain, which was followed by a general discussion of the life and works of the great humorist. An original paper on the subject of the Telluride power plant by Mrs. Wright, illustrated by a number of views proved both interesting and instructive. Mrs. Hays added much enjoyment by her instrumental numbers. This being the last meeting of the club year a program was outlined for the coming year including many interesting features. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the program.

The last meeting of the Bay View Reading club, will be held at the home of Mrs. Grant R. Brown, 1103 Second

The meeting of the Woman's Mis-sionary society of the First Presbyte-rian church, held at Mrs. L. M. Bailey's residence, was one of the most inter-esting and best attended of the year.

About sixty ladies were present. The programme was in charge of Mrs. G. W. Parks. Miss Ethel Paul gave a most hold a meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at Mrs. A. J. Johnson's home, 251 South Third East. It is important that all members be in attendance.

instructive and interesting sketc Siam and Laos and Mrs. Thomas called at 2:30 sharp.

Election of officers. Meeting celebrated in years past.

SOCIETY

ed from Preceding Page. Mrs. G. P. Stallman, Mrs.

M. Miller will pass the sum

Charlotte Holmes will pass the

I Johnson has gone to Cali

Willard invites all patrons and all lovers of art ber sindio, 437 East Pirst South Just 1, 2, 3 and 4, when her subful paintings will be on ex-

Plerence Cooke, who has been at Miss Knox's school at Briar-toor, N. Y. will visit for several with classmates at Grand Wich; also in Chicago ires. She will return to see the middle of June. to Sal

Diswoodey and Mrs. Kindlespire

Prentiss Gray has returned to ad Mrs. Robert Elmore will ar-the east Monday and will re-fer days before going to their ad Mrs. S. J. Loan and family uned from California. Mrs P. S. Keogh have moved

Kensington apartments to H. McKinney of Salt Lake graduate in June from the dege of agriculture, Winona Askinney and daughter, it sait Lake Saturday noon for al Lockport, N. Y., where they it is summer. They will stop to attend the graduation exer-McKinney and daughter. attend the graduation exer-

d Mrs. Frank J. Denison of me the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Freed for the summer at their onle Rees entertains Thurs-lerd C. Montague and daughter fatlanta, Ga., are visiting with stage's parents, Mr. and Mrs. 1818, 627 Seventh avenue.

friends of Edward J. Fitz be pleased to hear that he ity after a year's study in Pizzatrick has been honing offered a position as con-r in Ohio, and as he has ac-position he will find it necave for Ohio in the near fu-Pitzpatrick spent some time or, there she visited her daugh-ans formerly Miss Kathleen oit, and met her son, who re-usalt Lake with her. Mr. Fitz-all be home to his friends at trick apartments in the time.

Mrs. Henry C. Hoffman and have returned Manni, have returned from las, D Md. Mrs. Hoffman will not bly, receive any of her friends Belle.

been prettily decorated for the event and many friends dropped in during the afternoon to greet the hostess and the Complimentary to Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes was a luncheon given by Miss Young of Red Butte Hollow Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Dinwoodey entertained at a Sunday evening tea for Mrs. Will Dinwoodey and her sister, Mrs. Kindlespire, and on Tuesday Mrs. H. M. Wells entertained for the same charming visitors. Mrs. Frank W. Jennings entertained on Thursday.

Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh was the hostess at several card parties during the week. Mrs. M. T. Bailev and Mrs. C. H. Post entertained at bridge on Tuesday and Wednesday.

At Fort Douglas Wednesday evening Mrs. O. A. Scaman entertained at a delightful dinner, Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bagley entertained at cards at their home on Seventh East street.

Miss Rae Campbell and Miss Mignon Denhalter entertained for Miss Viola Denhalter, a bride of the future.

Mrs. Selden I. Clawson entertained on Monday for her mother, Mrs. Hattie J. Pickett.

Mrs. W. C. Price entertained the members of her club Thursday evening at her apartments in the Hollywood flats, the affair being in the nature of a linen shower, complimentary to Miss Virginia Smith, whose marriage takes plake June 2. The rooms were effectively decorated with hearts and Cupids and pink and white carnations. The evening was pleasantly passed in music and games, prizes going to Miss Lisle Bradford and to the guest of honor. Later dainty refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. H. A. Erdman, Mrs. A. Johnstone and Miss Stella Ivy.

Mr. and Mrs. William Park.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bradford pleasantly entertained twenty-five teachers from the Lowell school at dinner Wednesday evening. The evening hours, after dinner were pleasantly passed in games and music. The home was prettily decorated with many flow-

Thursday evening, Miss Addie Alliston was entertained by her aunts, Mrs. G. B. Olson and Mrs. R. Glenn. The event was a china shower. Miss Alliston is to be married June 1, and several bright parties are being planned for

One of the delightful events of Friday evening was an informal five hundred party, with Mrs. Oscar L. Cox as hostess. There were five tables played, for which prizes were awarded. Later in the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served.

Miss Edith Grow pleasantly enter-tained at a linen shower at her home Tuesday evening in honor of Anne Hilton, a spring bride. The evening was pleasantly passed in games and music, after which dainty refreshments were

Mrs. F. B. La Belle, entertained at an Orpheum box party Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Enid's twelfth birthday anniversary. The guests included Helen Twombly, Winnic Benger, Ethel Bowden, Helen Douglas, Dorothy Darling, Katherine Twombly, Lacabine, Dorothy and Enid La Josephine Dugan and Enid La Later dainty refreshments were

Miss Helen Mitchell delightfully entertained a number of girls at her home on Ninth East Thursday. The evening was spent in guessing games. The first prize was won by Miss Olivia Broadbeck and the booby by Miss Lillian Berrum. Those present were the Misses Ruby Knight, Ivy Heath, Mabelle Kinnersley, Vera Burbidge, Hilda Cherling, Gladys Buckle, Lillian Berrum, Ethel Cheshire, Olivia Broadbeck and Helen Mitchell.

The proceeds will one of Mr. and Mrs. One of the events of the week was a surprise party given in honor of Mr.

and MIS Moscal Dell. The evening was spent in music and games. Miss Lena Dell, Alta Appar and Teresa Dell rendered some delightful piano selections. A supper was served at midnight. The goests were Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick, Mr. and Mrs. G. Zanzett, E. Sebettly to leave for Calimin Mr. Gaw, and where make their home in the fulling the guests were Mrs. Lower Mrs. Lo One of the delightful parties of the week was given by Miss Hazel Clark week was given by Miss Hazel Clark at her home on Third avenue, when the few week was given by Miss Hazel Clark at her home on Third avenue, when there were six tables of five hundred played. The house was beautifully decorated with pink carnations, and the district, the Misses Anna Deckalle Francke. The rooms had

Clean

Up For

Memorial

Day

Unexpected invitations are sure to turn up at the very last minute, and unless your clothes are in "apple pie order" you will be unable to attend. Consequently you will spend an unpleasant day. Avoid not looking right by sending your clothes to us; we will French dry clean and press and return to you in plenty of

We call and deliver free.

SALT LAKE CLEANING

& DYEING CO. 351 SOUTH STATE

Ind. 1734.

Would You Serve a Meal for this season was held at the club-house Thursday morning. Mrs. L. M. Bailey gave a paper, "Botticelli," which was much enjoyed by all. Like This?

BEEF BROTH BEEF STEAK

ROAST BEEF

BEEF SALAD SUET PUDDING

BEEF TEA

BEEF TEA

Perhaps you have never thought of coffee in this way—something to be judged not by guesswork or merely what some mixer thinks "tastes" good, but as a food—a ration—each element of which should be perfectly balanced.

But think it over and decide whether

Beef is all right, but not quite so much of it all in one place, thank you.

Bather TEA

and years of time we have gathered to-gether practically every coffee grown in the world and analyzed it, finding just in the world analyzed it, finding just in the proportion of coffee constituents each coffee contains. From Mocha, Java, Brazil, Arabla, Malabar, Costa Rica, Cordova, Céylen, Borneo, Egypt, Nubla, Sudan, from every part of the world, from every variety of soil, climate and method of cultivation, until we know just what each consists of. Then, with this knowledge to aid un. We have proportioned these choiceat coffees in all the world, balancing the elements on against the other, proportioning coffee high in some elements, with those low in those same elements, with those low in those same elements, with those low in those same elements, with those low in the world analyzed.

But think it over and decide whether

But think it over and decide whether you perhaps have not been using coffee "with too much beef," whether this is not the reason your coffee never seems r i g h t — winning first price. winning first prize. The consolation prize was awarded to Jeanette Thompson, being a leinon. Among the invited guests were Miss Lucile Morningstar, Marion Mathews, Clara Caboon, Claire Haines, Jasmine Smith, Faith Putnam, Vivian Smith, Lucile Armstrong, Edward Banning, Raymond Wilcox, Frank Boxrud, John Wallace, Harry Wallace, Dan Guernsey, Warner Morrison, Gordon Van Alstine and others.

Miss Florence Sullivan entertained Friday evening for Miss Margaret Col-lins, who leaves for Detroit next week. The parlors were artistically decorated Belle. Later dainty refreshments were served at Franklin's.

Miss Helen Mitchell delightfully entertained a number of girls at her home on Ninth East Thursday. The evening was spent in guessing games. The first prize was won by Miss Olivia Broadbeck and the booby by Miss Lillian Berrum. Those present were the Misses Ruby Knight, Ivy Heath, Mabelle Kinnersley, Vera Burbidge, Hilda Cherling, Gladys Buckle, Lillian Berrum, Ethel Cheshire, Olivia Broadbeck, and Helen Mitchell.

One of the events of the week was a surprise party given in honor of Mrand Mrs. Joseph Dell. The evening was spent in music and games, Miss Lydia White, the color scheme being carried out throughout the halls and dining room. Prizes were awarded to the winners of the winning games and dining room. Prizes were awarded to the winners of the winning games and dining room. Prizes were awarded to the winners of the winning games and dining room. Prizes were awarded to the winners of the winning games and dining room. Prizes were awarded to the winners of the winning games and garried out throughout the halls and dining room. Prizes were awarded to the winners of the winners of the winning games and games on honor. Dancing followed the elaborate supper, and the unique feature of the evening was the slumber party given the young folks and the following guests were present:

Miss Helen Mitchell Lelian Berrum. Those present were the Miss Margaret Collins, Miss Virginin Shannon, Miss Marie Hughes, Miss Enid Gleason, Miss Maida Hegney, Miss Lydia White. Miss Grace Sullivan, Gerold Anderson, Arthur McChrystal, Myke Lewis, Russel Sprunt, Mr. Modell Anderson, Arthur McChrystal, Myke Lewis, Russel Sprunt, Mr. Modell Anderson, Arthur McChrystal, Myke Lewis, Russel Sprunt, Mr. Modell Anderson, Arthur McChrystal, Myke Lewis, Russel Sprunt, Mr. Modell Anderson, Arthur McChrystal, Myke Lewis, Russel Sprunt, Mr. Modell Anderson, Arthur McChrystal, Mr. Modell Anderson, Arthur McChrystal, Mr. Modell Anderson, Arthur McChrystal, Mr. Modell Anderson, Arthur McChryst

Mrs. Frank Pierson pleasantly enter-tained at her home Friday evening in honor of Miss Myrtle Hague. The home honor of Miss Myrtle Hague. The home was prettily decorated throughout, the parlor being pretty with a profusion of pink and white carnations and palms, the dining room in yellow flowers and streamers of smilax. The dining table was beautiful with several bowls of yellow pansies, also yellow shaded candelabra. Games were enjoyed during the evening the prize being wed shaded candelabra. Games were enjoyed during the evening, the prize being won by Mrs. D. Cameron. The guests were Myrtle Hague. Afton Eldredge, Gale Morgan, Ella Kroll, Myrtle Van Steeter, Maggie Lawson, Lewis Maxfield, Edith Deane, Anna Elliott, Josie Maxfield, Pearl Gardiner, Mrs. A. Collison, Mrs. E. Haughton, Mrs. D. Cameron, Mrs. Hintze and Mrs. A. J. Malin, The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Miss Blanche Pierson and Edna kichter.

Mrs. B. B. Rose entertained at bridge the ten room of the Louvre Sat-Mrs. B. B. Rose entertained at bridge in the tea room of the Louvre Sat-urday afternoon. A delicious lunchoon was served at 5 o'clock. Prizes were won by Mrs. F. W. Meakin and Mrs. F. J. McGanney.

Mrs. J. J. Kinny and Mrs. G. W. Byan entertained Saturday afternoon at bridge. Prizes were won by Miss Margret Sinnigan, Mrs. R. A. Irvine, Mrs. Fred Wade, Miss Nan Short and Mrs. Frank Y. Taylor.

The P. E. O. society held the last meeting of the year Saturday after-noon with Miss Lyle Wimmer at her home, 601 East Third South street. Alcestis was well given by Mrs. A. J.

Mrs. C. C. Parsons, Jr., entertained he teachers of the Webster school at luncheon at her home.

Mrs. W. W. Cluff and Mrs. G. A. Light delightfully entertained at a parcel shower at the Cluff home on Douglas avenue, Saturday evening, in honor of Virginia Smith, one of the June brides. A delicious luncheon was served, the decorations being in pink and white carnations.

Lake theater, followed by a supper at the Louvie.

An interesting meeting of the College club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. A. Daugherty, in honor of Mrs. Harold Siegel, a few of the younger matrons being enter tained. The hall was decorated in yellow roses, the living room in white sto be judged elements. until at last we have produced liv what some dot, but as a sent of which ed.

lecide whether the lecide whether a using coffee element equalized, — the perfect offee.

In Electa coffee there is no excess of any one element to distress the most sensitive. The elements have been balanced. Electa—Hall Balanced. Coffee will disturb no one, and while we have succeeded in producing in Electa Coffee a coffee that is perfectly balanced from every standpoint, we have found something else. Electa Coffee—Hall Balanced—has a flavor that the coffee experts and years in vain.

To appreciate this coffee, to realize that in considering coffee a food, we have found also the seat of perfect flavor of which the old shicks of Arabia dreamed, you must taste it and let its aroma, its flavor, its delightful satisfying delicious ness convince you.

Yet it costs you but 45 cents a pound, and is sold with the absolute guarantee of perfect satisfaction or your money will be refunded upon the return of the empty can. Electa—Hall Balanced Coffee is store.

Send today for the wonderful little magic test hox with which you can see just how Electa Coffee is Hall Balanced. It's free.

H. R. HALL CO., CHICAGO ILLINOIS

The consolation syringas, and the dining room in red

Saturday morning a jolly party, chap-eroned by Mrs. Stewart, left the city to spend two days at the Wilcox cot-tage in Parley's canyon. Those who compose the party are the Misses Clara Haines. Hazel Clark, Lou Houston, Clara Cahoon; Messrs. Ray Wilcox, Ed-ward Banning, Ralph McClain and George Cahoon

The second of a series of entertain ments given by the T. A. B. club was a very prettily arranged house party given at the home of Miss Eleanor White on Thursday afternoon, May 26, the proceed for on Thursday afternoon, May 26, the proceed for on Thursday evening. The din ing room was beautiful in pink and green. The table decorations were pink carnations, sweet peas and ferns. The place cards were hand-painted by the Mrs. M. Y. Dougall at No. 49 in the place cards were hand-painted by twenty. Miss Bertha Spencer, Cloe Winchester and Eleanor White assisted in receiving; Louise Maycock, Nellie Hamilton, Ivy Knight and Mayme Hill presided over the table. Miss May injusted of the table. Miss May timest served punch in the hall. The Complete our great clears will with search and an injustance of the evening were Eugene Mackay, Harry White, Miller Hamilton, Rex Winchester, Ross Bradford, Sundry Sanders, Wallace Winchester, Ross Bradford, Sundry Sanders Winchester, R

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Branning enter tained twenty employees in honor of their silver wedding anniversary. A Dutch supper was served later in the evening, the decorations being in peo-nies and snowballs.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

The Ladies' Literary club, baving named all its standing committees for next year, will before the summer adjournment complete its plans for the next season's campaign of study. All the committees will meet on Monday at 2 p. m. at the club for the purpose of electing their chairmen and to receive instruction from the president upon their duties and the general work as well as other details of importance. The club has passed through a highly successful year and it is anticipated that the next year will be full of interesting features. ng features.

The Ladies' Reading club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. C. W. Martin. The roil call was responded to by current events. The lesson was on Hollans. The election of officers was as follows: Mrs. W. F. Beer, president; Mrs. C. H. Harlan, secretary. The next meeting will be held May 31, with Mrs. E. V. Smith at her apartments in the Progress.

The history section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet Thursday morning at 10:15 o'clock at the clubhouse. Mrs. A. B. Gibson will give a paper on 'The Reign of Diocletian and the Era of the Martyrs.''

Miss Viola Denhalter was the complimented guest at a party given Saturday evening by Mrs. A. V. Thomas, A delightful supper was served during the evening, the decorations on the table being in peonies and red earnations. The parlors were decorated with pink and white carnations. About thirty guests were present.

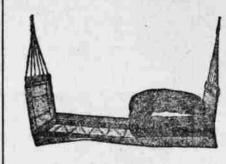

Mrs. W. W. Cluff and Mrs. G. A. Light delightfully entertained at a party given Saturday are: L. M. Bailey, president; Professor Stewart, first vice president, Governor Spry, second vice president; was first vice president; the professor Stewart for the current teachers' association of Salt Lake City are: L. M. Bailey, president; Governor Spry, second vice president; Governor Spry, second vice president; was first vice president; Hon A. C. Nelson, fifth vice president; Mrs. O. W. Moyle, fourth vice president; Hon A. C. Nelson, fifth vice president; John Cain, seventh vice president; John Cain, seventh vice president; by Cheff home on Dour.

las avenue, Saturday evening, in bonor of Virginia Smith, one of the June brides. A delicious luncheon was served, the decorations being in pink and white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Jenkins entertained at a stall party at the Sait Lake theater, followed by a supper at the Louvre.

An interesting the important club events of the week was the meeting of the educational committee of the Utah Federation of Woman's clubs that was held at Those figuring in the programme were Superintendent Christensen, Mrs. Lydin D. Alder, the Lafayette orchestra and Miss Minette Baer.

Have You Seen The "Hammoporte"?

It is the very embodiment of ease and comfort and made to last a life-time.

This new swing hammock is made of durable canvas, in green and tan, the mattress is filled with carefully selected moss-Every feature of this "warm weather necessity" makes it popular for porch and lawn and summer home

Let us show you the Hammoporte.

Dinwoodey's

MONUMENTS AND HEADSTONES

$25,000 STOCK TO SELECT FROM.

R. MCKENZIE 422 So. State St.

and Florence Jennings, the three Bev-erly brothers; Mrs. Campbell, Miss Grubb, and the maids are to be Miss The Past Noble Grands club will Ruth Storer and Mrs. Charles Hauser give a card social at the home of Mrs. Albert Fisher, 1206 West Second South, OFFICERS GIVE ADDRESSES

Siam and Laos and Mrs. Thomas Weir gave a short account of her trip to Hawaii, dwelling especially on the customs and religion of the people. The solos by Miss Hilds Greeson and Mrs. Siegel were most beautifully rendered, and most appropriate to the occasion. After the meeting a social half hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Bailev was assisted in the dining room by Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Tyndale, Miss Dorothy Bailey and Miss. De Camp. The home was fragrant with the perfume of sweet flowers. These meetings are held regularly in the afternoon of the third Tuesday of each month. Strangers are most welcome.

The Salt Lake Woman's club will hold a meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 19:20 at Mrs. A. J. Johnson's home, 251

The Salt Lake Woman's club will hold a meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 2:20 at Mrs. A. J. Johnson's home, 251

The Miss Miss Minnie Cassiday as Mr. Council, the stock broker. Misses Helen Boxrud, Inez Bothwell and Florence Jennings, the three Bevannet Stranger and Miss Read of Salt Lake City, and Thomas Read of Salt Lake City and Misses Helen Boxrud, Inex Bothwell and Florence Jennings, the three Bevannets Canada Captain Albert Chesham, which has been announced for Monday evoning, May 23, at 8 o'clock, is being looked forward to by the congregation and the barracks promises to be crowdened to the utmost capacity. Colonel Jenkins will officiate.

Miss MINNIE M. CROWDER MARRIED TO THOMAS READ A quiet wedding of Saturday was that taking place at Phillips parsonage, when Thomas Read of Salt Lake City and Captain Albert Chesham, which has been announced for Monday evoning, May 23, at 8 o'clock, is being looked forward to by the congregation and the barracks promises to be crowdened to the utmost capacity. Colonel Jenkins will officiate.

Miss Milde Richard Research Agrae and Captain Albert Chesham, which has been announced for Monday evoning, May 23, at 8 o'clock, is being looked forward to by the congregation and the barracks promises to be crowdened to the utmost capacity. Colonel Jenkins will officiate.

Miss Miss Ali A quiet wedding of Saturday was that taking place at Phillips parsonage, when Thomas Read of Salt Lake City and Miss Minnie M. Crowder of Des Moines, Ia., were married in the presence of a few friends by the Rev. P. A. Simpkin. The newly wedded pair will be at home to their friends June 15 at 785 Flossie avenue. Salt Lake City.

To complete our great clearance and clear the store of all spring goods, we've divided our

ENTIRE SUIT STOCK

Into five splendid lots and priced them as follows:

Lot No. 1-All suits worth 9.95 up to $25.00 Lot No. 2-All suits worth ot No. 2—All suits worth $14.95 Lot No. 3-All suits worth up to $65.00 $24.95 Lot No. 4-All suits worth Beautiful sample line of tub suits, no two

All Coats at One-Third Off

worth 7.50 to $10.00, choice

Including raincoats, black silk coats, broadcloth coats and covert coats, in the newest styles and colors for spring 1910.

SEGIL'S SAMPLE CLOAK STORE

38 Main Street

alike, fetching styles,

Opposite Z. C. M. I.

3.95